

Players' Club Cast For Shavian Satire Selected Yesterday

"The Devil's Disciple" to be Presented Dec. 13, 14, 15.

PRICE SET AT 55c.

Filmore Sadler Will Direct — Cast Consists Of Thirteen

Casting for the new Player's Club production, "The Devil's Disciple," by Bernard Shaw, which will go by the boards at Moyse Hall on December 13, 14 and 15, has been completed, it was announced today. The play, which is a typical Shavian opus, is centered in the American Revolution, and this the executive feels, will allow the club ample scope to display its propensities as regards costumes and scenery. Organization, too, has been finished and all important executive positions have been allotted.

Tickets for the play will soon be available, both to students and to the general public. Special price for the former has been fixed at 55 cents, while outsiders will have to pay 75 cents for their admittance.

Cast Chosen

The cast includes:

Richard Dudgeon Gordon Bourne
Mrs. Dudgeon V. Dickinson
Christy Dudgeon Graham Gould
Mr. Anderson James Moore
Judith Anderson Margaret Atkinson
Essie Dudgeon Lois Wright
Uncle Titus Tom Montgomery
Uncle William Tom Puddington
Aunt Dudgeon Charlotte Bowman and Alice Winslow-Sprague
Lawyer Hawkins B. Scheeter
Major Swindon Colin Cam
General Burgoyne Robert Wakefield
Sergeant A. Archibald

The Devil's Disciple, as the title would indicate, deals with the disconcerting antics—disconcerting to those who have never seen Shaw—of the aforementioned apostle to his Satanic Majesty, who performs and reacts in a most unconventional manner to all situations, much to the dismay of his ultra-conservative relatives. Shaw is at his best in this work, which was issued in book form under the satiric title of "Plays for Puritans," and is replete with humorous situations in which the playwright expresses himself in his own inimitably free style.

Sadler To Direct

The executive is glad to announce that Filmore Sadler, who was so successful in last year's production, has again been given the task of directing the forthcoming presentation. Max Roth, who did the sets for the club's last two major works "Rope" and "Hay-Fever," will again design the scenery. Production is in the hands

Exchange Pays Out Book Money, Today

Large Number of English I Text Books Still Remain

Today is positively the last day on which the Book Exchange will pay out. Those to whom money is owed will find their names on the back page of the Daily. Today's hours of operation will be from 11-1:00 this morning and from 3 till 5:30 this afternoon.

Of special importance to all those taking English I is the announcement that the Exchange has for disposal a large stock of the prescribed text for that course, namely Types of Prose Writing. These will be disposed of during the regular hours of operation today.

Dr. Hughes Speaker At Sociological Club

PROFESSOR HUGHES will address the first meeting of the Sociological Society on November 2 at eight o'clock in Strathcona Hall. In his discussion on "Radical Contacts and Conflicts in the Present-Day World" he will stress the importance of this problem to modern society.

This meeting is open not only to those students who are studying Sociology but to anyone else who may be interested. All Freshettes and Freshmen are cordially welcome. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

McGill Charity Campaign Slowly Getting Underway

Luncheon Features Humorist's Address

"EXAMINATIONS" will be the subject of Dr. Stephen Leacock's address when he speaks to the Commercial Undergraduate Society at one o'clock tomorrow. The luncheon will be held in the Union Grill Room. As there are only a limited number of tickets left, all Commerce students are urged to obtain theirs at once from the class officers. The price is 35 cents.

The luncheons are to be held monthly; their object being to provide an opportunity for closer relations between Upper and Lower classes, and to bring professors and students together in an informal manner. At each meeting a prominent speaker will give an address.

Numerous Dates Assure Success Of Date Bureau

Odd Institution Working Overtime Despite Reports

THE many present and potential patrons of the Date Bureau will be pleased to hear that it is about to start operations in real earnest. The number of applicants has now risen to the point where the management feels itself able to fill the requests of even the most fastidious of its supporters.

Contrary to the rumours circulated through the City press, the Bureau has been at work continually throughout the past few weeks and has added considerably to its number of dates. Pictures of applicants are now coming in and these will be attended to first. Those who have already sent in their applications without photographs are asked to complete the file by handing them in at once, otherwise they will have to wait until the others have been accommodated.

Calls to prospective dates will be issued today and Thursday. Each time as many dates as possible will be completed, and particular attention will be paid in each individual case to see that the two parties concerned are well suited to each other.

In view of the fact that the S.C.M. Hallowe'en party is to take place tonight, the management of the Date Bureau is confident in its ability for arranging quite a number of dates. Applicants who would like dates for certain specified evenings are requested by the management to give written notice to that effect at least two days in advance. The notice must be comprehensive as to the type of person required, and the approximate kind of entertainment which the applicant has in mind.

Committee Decides Junior Prom Date

After a meeting of the Junior Prom Committee it was decided that November 30th should be set for the date of what is considered by many as the Gala Event of the season. This date may have to be changed, however, owing to many other dances being held around that date. If so, it will probably be held on an early December date.

It will be necessary to secure table reservations early as the tickets are being limited to one hundred. Faculty representatives will arrange this. Officers and representatives are: Chairman, L. K. Garmon, Medicine; Secretary-Treasurer, C. Harrington, Law; Judy Moore, R.V.C.; Violet Pick, M. S. P. E.; Graham Gould, Arts; Charles Turner, Commerce; Alec Loomis, Engineering; L. Fabbro, Architecture; J. K. MacKenzie, Theology.

Maccabeans Meet Sunday

Featured by the annual Freshman-Sophomore Debate, the Maccabean Circle will meet in the Reading Room of the Union on Sunday at 3:00 p.m. Morton Godine and Ruth Cohen are scheduled to represent the Fresh, while the Sophomore team is composed of Sydney Friedman and Pearl Jacobs. Godine won the Bovey shield this year, while Friedman is last year's winner. The subject of the debate is "Resolved that the aftermath of the World War has been beneficial to World Jewry."

Drive Lasts Until Saturday—Collections In All Faculties Slow

AFTER two days of campaigning for McGill funds for the annual Federated Charities Drive, returns have not been as good as anticipated. Contributions have fallen short of the corresponding returns at a similar date last year. At present Architecture leads all faculties with 60 per cent of its objective attained. The School of Graduate Nurses is next with 46 per cent, while Commerce and Theology are tied for third with only one fifth of the required amount.

Committee

President, R. Malcom Ransom; Arts and Science, Arnold L. Johnson; Commerce, Walter Markham; Medicine, Murray McIntyre and George Lilley; Dentistry, Erol Clift; Law, Kenneth McNamee; Engineering, Jack Houghton; Architecture, H. Blatchford; Royal Victoria College, Deborah Barbour; Library School, Bert Hamilton; Graduate School, Ronald Leatham; Graduate Nurses, Miss Flint; School of Physical Education, Helen MacDonald; Theology, Keith MacKenzie; Publicity, John H. McDonald.

The total objective for the University is $17,000, of which the students are expected to provide $2,000. A collections committee has been organized, but it will be impossible to speak to each student. For this reason the committee in charge of the drive hopes that the undergraduates will not wait until they are asked, but will give their contributions to their class president as soon as possible.

Consists of Separate Organizations

The Federated Charities consists of thirty-three separate organizations which make one appeal yearly. This is for the purpose of saving a multiplicity of canvassers and to assure that a minimum of money should be spent on organization. The committee has pointed out that many people are spending much time and money on the drive, and it hopes that the McGill student body will cooperate.

At present the results are one hundred dollars smaller than those at the same time last year. Money should be returned directly to Mr. Fletcher, as this speeds up the business of the organization. The committee expects that by this time every class collector has got in touch with the men assigned to him.

Mechanicals Plan Visit To Company

Expedition Leaves Engineering Building at Two; Cars Wanted

Today's trip to the Canadian Tube and Steel Products, by the Mechanical Club, is to start from in front of the Engineering building at two o'clock this afternoon. Members are requested to come early, as the Club will be addressed by a representative of the company before the cars start.

The first meeting this season of the organization was held this Monday. Jason Ingham, president of the club, discussed the visits to companies which have already been arranged, and called for further suggestions for the club's program from the members present.

Mr. Patten, the Honorary President, then spoke for a few moments on the importance of improving the visits, and of making them of more benefit to those who attend. As a result, it was decided that, in future, each visit will be preceded by a short lecture, explaining in brief the nature of the processes and the machinery to be seen.

As no Secretary-Treasurer was elected last Spring, nominations for this post were called for. Douglas Hamilton was elected by acclamation.

Biologists Convene

Biology students will commence a new season of activity with the first meeting of the Biological Society next Tuesday night. This meeting will commence at 8:15 o'clock in the main lecture theatre of the Biological Building. The guest speaker will be Professor L. H. Huxkins, honorary president of the Society, who will give an address on "Current Trends in Genetics." Dr. Huxkins who is head of the newly created department of Genetics has gained an enviable reputation both as a popular lecturer and an advocate of the scientific viewpoint. All those interested are invited to attend and are assured of an interesting and instructive evening.

Students Present German Comedy On November 16

SOMETHING in the nature of an innovation will be seen at McGill on the evening of Friday, November 16th, when the German Department will present a four-act comedy on the stage of Moyse Hall. This farce, "Die Deutschen Kleinstadter," by August von Kotzebue, will be acted by a cast of McGill students and spoken entirely in German.

It is expected that this event will arouse considerable interest, especially since this is the first time in the history of McGill University that a play has been produced in German. The cast has been rehearsing for the past two weeks and is hoping to make the utmost out of the humorous lines and situations with which the play is replete.

A resume of the play will appear shortly in The Daily and a summary will also be printed in the programme so that even those who do not understand German will have no difficulty in following the action. There will be no charge for admission—all interested are welcome to attend.

DAILY GET-TOGETHER PROPOSED FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY EVENING

The usual get-together of the McGill Daily staff will be held some night next week, probably Wednesday. It will begin with a light supper at the Union, followed by short speeches from the members of the Managing Board. In addition there will probably be some well-known newspaper man to pass his wisdom and experience to the freshmen and freshettes.

Last year, following the supper, the staff was taken for a tour of inspection of the printing plant of the Montreal Gazette. Here they saw the complete evolution of a modern newspaper after being typed by the reporter, brought to the printer, and passing through various other stages until it finally appears on the street.

This year the programme is still uncertain, but it is probable that the same procedure as last year will be carried out. Then it was found necessary to divide the staff into four groups, which went down on succeeding nights. In all likelihood this will be repeated.

Y.M.H.A Sponsors Literature Lectures

Professor Noad to Deliver Ten Addresses on Modern Literature

A series of ten lectures on Modern Literature will be given by Professor A. J. Noad at the Y.M.H.A. starting November 1st, and on every successive Thursday evening. This course which is sponsored by the Department of Education of the Y.M.H.A. is one of the many series of lectures to be held this year at that institution.

Following are the lectures to be delivered by Professor Noad and their dates:

Nov. 1, 1934—Introduction—What our contemporary writers are driving at—criticisms most frequently aimed at them—their defence—new ideals in matter and form. The most potent literary influences at work today.

Nov. 8, 1934—Marcel Proust—His personality and methods of work—gigantic scope of his novel—its handling of difficult material—his unique development of character—his artistic ideals and influence.

Nov. 15, 1934—Andre Gide—Recent attitude of French criticism to him—his "fluid" sympathies—effect of L'Immoraliste on readers—experiments with fiction—Les faux-Monnayeurs, his masterpiece—analysis of it.

Nov. 23, 1934—Thomas Mann—Initiator of genealogical novel with Buddenbrooks—peculiar interest of heredity in him—his position at home and abroad—his Magic Mountain an epitome of pre-war German youth—its construction.

Nov. 29, 1934—James Joyce—Much more than author of Ulysses—early works and gradual adoption of his peculiar literary doctrines—effect of

(Continued on page 2)

Temple Centre Amateur Nite

The Young People's Society of Temple Emanuel are holding their annual Amateur Nite at the Lecture Hall of the Temple, tonight. Amateur talent in the field of entertainment will hold the stage, and refreshments and dancing will conclude the evening. Students are cordially invited to attend.

Imperial Debate Ticket Sale Advances Rapidly

Oxford-Cambridge Team Meets McGill Union Representatives Monday

TICKETS for the coming international debate between the combined Oxford-Cambridge team and McGill which takes place in Moyse Hall at 8:15 p.m. Monday are now on sale at the Union Tuck Shop, Bill Gentleman's office, and the R. V. C. Their price is twenty-five cents, the proceeds going to meet the hundred-dollar guarantee made to the English team by the Debating Union. According to the executive, the tickets are selling well.

The resolution is "Liberalism, though it yet speaketh, is dead." The affirmative will be upheld by the McGill team of Melbourne Doig and Philip Vineberg, while Robert Crichton and Leslie Turnour Jackson will support the negative. The latter are representatives of the Oxford and Cambridge Debating Unions, respectively.

Crichton, a Scotsman, was educated at Seabrook School in Yorkshire, where he took an interest in debating and the drama, producing six plays, and acting in Reinhardt's production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream." At Oxford he became Secretary, then Treasurer, of the Union, and an Officer of the Conservative Association. He was also elected to the presidency of the Balliol College Law Moot Society, and the Editorship of the "Isis," the Oxford Undergraduate Journal.

Jackson is a South African, born in Cape Town, but has been educated in England. He attended Trinity College, Cambridge, where he was Open Exhibitioner in Classics. He was chairman of a commission at the British and Dominion Students' Conference at Geneva last year, Secretary, and subsequently Chairman, of the Cambridge University Branch of the League of Nations Union, and member of the Executive of the British Universities League of Nations Society. In addition, he is an ex-president of the University Labour Club.

Third Tour of Kind

The tour of the British team is sponsored by the National Federation of Canadian University Students, and is the third of its kind arranged by this organization, the first taking place in 1924.

As yet the Oxford-Cambridge team has not been defeated, and has emerged victorious over Dalhousie and Mount Allison Universities, and Methodist College, Newfoundland.

Newman Club Fetes Dr. McNally Sunday

Communion Breakfast At Krausman's — Tickets Now on Sale

Dr. W. J. McNally will be guest of honour of the Newman Club at a communion breakfast to be held at Krausman's Cafeteria, Phillip's Square, on Sunday, November 4th. The degree of Doctor of Science was recently conferred on Dr. McNally by McGill for his valuable work of the past year.

James Shanahan, noted Irish tenor, will be soloist at the service, a special Low Mass to be held in the Lady's Chapel of St. Patrick's at 9:45 a.m. and at the breakfast following.

Dr. E. J. Mullally, member of the Montreal School Board and John T. Hackett, K.C., President of the McGill Graduates' Society, will render congratulations to Dr. McNally on behalf of the club. Guests at the head table with Dr. McNally, Father McShane and Father Cooney will be the Board of Wardens of St. Patrick's Church, Dr. E. J. Mullally and Mr. J. T. Hackett.

Tickets are now on sale at 35 cents a person and may be obtained from any of the following:

Medicine: Fifth Year, T. Cavanagh; Fourth Year, L. Quinn; Third Year, J. O'Neill; Second Year, J. Kelly; First Year, J. Lynch; Engineering, N. Tessier; Commerce, W. O'Connor; Arts, S. Brien; Law, J. A. Nolan; R.V.C., K. Kelly.

Managerial Board Chosen

The Managerial Board has finally been appointed and consists of Lorne Galois, W. P. Sprenger, and John H. McDonald.

Next Wednesday a meeting of all those at present engaged in athletic managerial work will be called. It is expected that many freshmen will enter this system, which is divided under three heads: Competitors; chosen from the freshman year; Assistant Managers; Competitors who pass the examination may become Assistant Managers; Managers are chosen from the ranks of the Assistant Managers by means of an examination.

Pleasure In Work Complete Philosophy Of William Morris

Mr. J. Beard Discusses Writer Before St. James Society

CRAFTSMAN ALSO Life of Versatility and Energy Devoted to Varied Arts

Work as a means to happiness and a delight in itself was the chief philosophy of William Morris and is the keynote to any interpretation of him as man or as artist. So declared Mr. John Beard in an address to the St. James Literary Society last evening.

A man of extraordinary energy who burned himself out when scarcely more than sixty years old, Morris was born in 1834. He was educated at Marlborough, and later at Exeter College, Oxford, where he became friendly with Edward Burne-Jones and was influenced by Ruskin, Rossetti, and the writings of Carlyle. Relinquishing his first ambition, the church, Morris decided to devote himself to art, not only in literature but in household furnishings and decoration.

He was a poet, a prose-writer, a designer of furniture and of wall-paper, a printer, and a socialist. The firm of Morris and Co. which he formed with some friends revolutionized interior decorating, replacing Victorian massiveness with Morris chintzes. Morris himself worked prodigiously, weaving tapestries and even growing the plants for his dyes, though he was a poor salesman and could not charge enough for his wares.

His literary work comprises twenty-four volumes, including mediaeval poems, translations from the Icelandic, and prose works such as News From Nowhere. Although his first volume of poems was very poorly received he later declined the Poet Laureateship.

Moved by a sense of life's sordidness he became a socialist, though this meant estrangement from friends and loss of business.

Societe Francaise Presents Charades

The presentation of Charades by each year will be the program of the initial meeting of the Societe Francaise which will be held on Thursday, November 1st at 4 p.m. in R.V.C. Common Room.

Prizes will be awarded for the two best performances of these Charades. French songs will also be sung. Everyone, especially Freshettes, is invited, no matter what the extent of their knowledge of French may be. Tea will be served at the close of the meeting.

The executive of the Societe Francaise is as follows: Honorary President, Madame Furness; President, Marthe Michaud; Vice-president, France Royer; Secretary, Marguerite Dubois; Representatives 4th Year, Rita De Pierro; 3rd Year, Hazel Dwyne; 2nd Year, Adele Lortie; 1st Year, Ruth Oliver.

Dental Association Assembled Monday

THE Montreal Dental Association held its monthly meeting on Monday night at the Medical Arts Building. Dr. A. L. Walsh, Dean of the McGill Faculty of Dentistry, spoke on the value of asepsis, illustrating his talk with lantern slides showing various diseases of the mouth and tongue. He pointed out the ever-present menace of bacterial organisms and stressed the necessity of more thorough sterilization.

Miss W. Hyde, of the Royal Victoria Hospital dental department, presided, and thanked Dr. Walsh for his address.

CHARITIES RETURNS

Faculty	Objective	Collected To Date	P.C.
Arts & Science	$465.00	6.75	1.5
Commerce	140.00	28.00	20.0
R. V. C.	360.00	25.25	7.0
Engineering	275.00	No Report	—
Architecture	45.00	26.75	60.0
Medicine	350.00	17.00	5.0
Dentistry	45.00	2.75	6.1
Law	75.00	21.25	28.3
Library School	20.00	3.00	15.0
M. S. P. E.	15.00	No Report	—
Graduate Nurses	25.00	11.55	46.2
Theology	60.00	12.25	20.4
Graduate School	125.00	2.50	2.0
Totals	$2,000.00	$157.05	7.8

McGill Daily

THE OLDEST COLLEGE DAILY IN CANADA

Published every week-day during the college year at 400 Sherbrooke St. West. Telephone LANcaster 7143

Opinions expressed below are those of the Managing Board of the McGill Daily and not the official opinions of the Students' Society

LINDSAY H. PLACE Editor-in-Chief
 ALLISON A. M. WALSH Managing Editor
 JOHN A. NOLAN News Editor
 H. BRODIE HICKS Sports Editor
 G. H. FLETCHER Advertising Manager

ASSOCIATE EDITORS
 Features Morton Bloomfield
 Exchanges Reuben Friedman '35
 A. Styles '35 J. H. McDonald '36
 P. F. Vineberg '35 L. Picard '36
 W. M. Chamard '35 A. Gruber '36
 I. Ryams '36 D. G. Amaron '36
 M. Goldfine '35

IN CHARGE OF THIS ISSUE
 News Sports
 Art Bloomfield Hy. Perelmutter
REPORTERS
 Nancy Murray, Joyce Marshall, Frances Brown, Sydney Cooper, Solly Goldstein, Mary Langstaff, Arnold Issenman, Art Cohen.

Vol. XXIV—Wed., Oct. 31, 1934—No. 22

Hallowe'en

FESTIVAL days have been set aside and observed in all ages, and among practically all peoples. Historians, in attempting to give some account of the origin of our holidays, almost always refer to them as events connected with the religious life of the people or some other great natural event. These explanations, however, are rather excuses than mere causes. The real great cause is that man needs regular playdays, fun days, for he has not yet learned to stifle his natural instincts without brief periods of freedom.

There is no folk holiday which has taken a stronger hold upon and has so captivated the popular imagination as that celebrated on the eve of October 31st, Hallowe'en. The name means hallowed, or holy evening. It is really an autumn festival, as May Day is a spring one. But peasant superstition has clouded its original meaning and has associated it with the delightful mystery of ghosts, witches, spirits and hobgoblins. And because of these superstitious notions, Hallowe'en appeals to the public fancy and all its old customs and traditions have remained.

The ancient Druids believed that on the night of this great autumn festival the great lord of death, Saman, called together all the wicked souls that had been condemned within the past twelve months, to inhabit the bodies of animals. Due to the wicked spirits that prowled about on this night, they lit large bonfires, and kept a sharp lookout. It is obvious that it is from the Druids that we derived the belief that witches and ghosts walk abroad on Hallowe'en — a belief still prevalent among rural peoples in Europe.

Another probable source may be found in the festival that the Romans had on the first of November in honour of Pomons. Nuts and apples, as tokens of the winter store of fruits, were roasted before great bonfires. The fact that even to this day these two fruits are used extensively in Hallowe'en games is sufficient indication that the Roman festival did have a share in the establishment of our traditional one.

Originally a very simple festival and one confined almost wholly to the church, it soon began to interest the lower classes in a peculiar way, and weird tales of spirits and goblins took root, then they circulated among them until it became a general and widespread notion that ghosts and spirits walked abroad on Hallowe'en. The black cat, the traditional companion of witches, is ever present on this holiday. The pumpkin is a symbol of the harvest. Stealing gates, buggies, chairs, etc., a popular prank until recently, was a relic of the time when gates and gate-posts disappeared and were said to have been stolen by the evil spirits. According to tradition, everything connected with Hallowe'en smacks of the supernatural.

Today many of the old customs and superstitions have disappeared, yet much remains of the tradition of this festival, even though the greater part of its significance or meaning is lost to us. The holiday, has, like most other ones of its nature, been attracting the populace less and less as time goes on, and is becoming more of an occasion for child pranks. Whether this is due to apathy, indifference, or because of an aloof disregard for such unscientific or "childish things" is a problem for the sociologist.

Writing

IN scanning the newspapers, reading the advertisements, in our everyday correspondence, it becomes more and more apparent that our present educational system has relegated one of the major educational subjects of ancient and bygone days to a position of comparative inferiority with disastrous and far reaching results. In the days of the Greeks, the Romans, the "Schoolmen" of Duns Scotus, and our Victorian ancestors, the study of Rhetoric occupied a time honored and prominent position. Rhetoric is the study of the art of writing prose — in our material times we call it by the ordinary sounding name of composition.

It is essential in the world today to be able to express thoughts and ideas in a clear, concise, and easy fashion. Very few people are able to do this; yet very few efforts are made to correct this evil. The increasing importance of professional careers has led to an undue importance and emphasis being laid on the practical subjects, such as mathematics, physics, chemistry, and the like. This has only been done at the expense of the "cultural" subjects; it is very seldom that more than an hour a week is allotted to the study of rhetoric, of the art and composition of writing correctly our own language — whereas six and even seven hours a week are devoted to the study of mathematics, which very frequently are never used. The effects of this unequal distribution are becoming ever increasingly plain.

In Victorian times it was almost a universal custom for young ladies to keep a diary — in which they recorded their inmost thoughts and experiences. Through constant and everyday practice, they gained a light, informal, easy and yet correct manner of expressing themselves in writing. This is no mere fable, but concrete fact. If we were to examine a letter written by a person of our present generation, we would stand a very fine chance of reading a dull, involved, and very prosaic piece of composition. Those qualities of sprightliness, informality, and readability so characteristic of good letter writing which come only after long hours of practice, are practically a negative quantity today.

In the days of the 19th century when the traveller went abroad, he took his "sketchbook" with him, and copied down the vivid and lasting impressions which he received; and on his return home, they read and passed the sketchbooks around among their friends. Today although there is more travel, and far more people go abroad, their literary output has dropped singularly. There was a conscious effort upon the part of the writers of these books, to put a certain literary effort into their work; they intended them to be read, to be discussed. Undoubtedly by far the greater part of it was only mediocre prose — there was the use of hackneyed expressions, time-worn descriptions, etc. — but nevertheless, there was a certain fluency and ease of writing evident.

What we require today, is more practice in writing; in our schools, in our everyday life, in our recreations, in everything we do. We should forget that sense of restraint, that fear of being laughed at, and just go ahead and write — even if it is trash. Practice makes perfect.

PANEGYRICUS

By McParlfootin

Pardonable Plagiarism

Once a week, with unfailing regularity, there appears on this very page, a short sketch called Pen Portraits. It purports to give a word-picture of our various pros with such unfailing accuracy (and in effect does) that those in whose hands the tremendous responsibility of educating us lies, vie with one another (we assume) in claiming the praises and disclaiming — the vegetable allusions. Our own recently unearthed moronic tendencies lead us to follow the old adage of "Monkey see, monkey do; or give me back my marbles," and hand our tormented readers a new angle on the portrait business. We're going to offer you a pen-portrait, with this variation: At the end of this column (and this is a gag to make you wade through the stuff) we will name the person we have been describing. If you skip the intervening paragraphs, and jump from the next to the very last, you're absolutely disqualified, and I won't play with you any more!

THE UNIVERSITY didn't want them much but got 'em . . . you know how public opinion is . . . their ancestry is something that never was quite cleared up, but their presence is undeniably a fact . . . some term the spots of brown to be seen on them, tan . . . but the more caustic element would term it nothing but rust . . . However, one does so dislike the naked, — very naked, truth . . . they have ever been the centre of a controversy centred around the problem whether or not life is, or is not, a bowl of cherries . . . but these, in question hold up their end of the affair very well . . . They are male, and are possessed of the patience of Job . . . evidently they cannot endure the cold . . . they spend the winter in a privy-like octagon-shaped mansion (NOT 3480 University St.) . . . they have been the butt of jokes and satirical experts . . . the latter going in for blue unthinkables, which have still stood the onslaughts of time . . . Max Ford once remarked that they reminded him of Harvard, Princeton and Cornell holding up the Yale Bowl . . . while somebody else tried to draft them for the Players' Club . . . they curse the hand that made them . . . but alas, like the poor, they are always with us . . . they rarely crack a smile, and still more rarely a joke . . . they have absolutely no sense of humor, nor any spirit whatsoever . . . they are not members of the C. O. T. C. . . yet they are more enduring than bronze and have been chiselled . . . who are they?

Yells . . . A Suggestion

THE new McGill yell, which informs all and sundry that we love "Our Fighting Redmen—McGill's own Redmen," and ends up in a fashion that would put Amy Semple MacPherson to shame, spurs us on to see what we can do in that direction. Since with this masterpiece, a new trend in dignifying the words of college yells has manifested itself, we hasten to add our fuel to the embers. The cheer-leaders must strike a Napoleonic pose, and with the forefinger of the left hand, lead the gaping multitudes thusly:

Inasmuch as there are
 Possibilities and probabilities
 Of our distinguished and beloved
 Redmen
 Emerging from this contest, victorious,
 We, the onlookers and supporters,
 Urge the players to keep up the Noble work.
 Let us exhort,
 But by no means vociferously
 Or in an undignified manner,
 Our belligerent bearers of the Red!
 Raw!

The last lines should be uttered in a somewhat crescendo fashion, after which a vote of thanks to the opposing team should be moved. And of course passed. Then restrained, and slightly enthusiastic hand-clapping would be permissible.

Pawns of Destiny

INJURIES mean nothing to our gallant Red Chessmen, if we can believe that sensational story blazoned forth on a remote corner of Page Two of The Daily. According to said reports, the gallant vice-president of these Pawnsters, who is hopping from C to B Minor company, sprained a ligament in his right thumb while grabbing greedily at a gambit, and will enter the coming hostilities with his left hand. We watched the squad as they worked out for a correspondence match with the House of David, and Coach Shephard ran them through a vigorous stamp-licking drill. What with the magnificent Brzezinski-Schlovitch System of masked plays that have been adopted, our crippled maestros are sure to emerge, if not victorious, at least happy in the realization that they have done their little bit for their Alma Mater. And considering the fact that our Brigade and Philatelic prospects are so bright this year, our football squad must come through, or else the Stadium will henceforth be used for major chess tournaments, which would necessitate the installation of sleeping quarters for spectators. Pawn to king four, and how have YOU been?

Woe Is Me!

A COLUMNATOR's life is not a happy one. If he's a flop, he just stops columnizing, and if he happens to please the poll, his lot is even worse. For then he is obliged to keep going. He cannot relax, he must be hypercritical of everything at all times. He has to offend some people to make others laugh, while he has to drive home his barbed shafts in a vein of the greatest good humour, even when he feels that a bludgeon with a nail through one end would do the trick better. And finally, when he finds himself violently attacked in correspondence columns, he feels that he has reached the pinnacle of success.

Which all goes to prove precisely nothing. Or possibly less. This pseudo philosophizing doesn't seem to belong, and we somehow feel the lack of the chaste cocos that is doled out at the Philosophical Society's intellectual debauches. It simply leaves yours truly with a headache, so he passes it on to his readers. However, the only recompense is that in addition to Life being Real and Earnest, it provides the setting for some of the rarest farces. Which which undergraduate coltich life takes an A-1 rating.

Answer

THE subject of today's Pain Portrait is NOT the Campus Statue. It's Probiasher, Gladys, and Mcparlfootin mournfully agreeing that the burden of being amusing on and off Page Two is an arduous one to bear.

OUR GALLIC NEIGHBOURS

Prepare For Tomorrow

Quartier Latin, Oct. 25th
 STUDENTS, writes Mr. Adrien Descoteaux, should prepare for tomorrow's struggle, since youths of today will be tomorrow's leaders. He cites interesting facts some of which we quote:

"In the United States, there was recently, organized by a group of students 'The Association of College Editors,' for the purpose of originating in the University Press a collective and concerted effort to lead the youth of today toward the great problems of the hour, problems we will have to solve sooner or later, or upon which we will be called to give an opinion. This organization has drafted a programme of studies on three principal subjects, of the greatest actuality:

1. WAR. In case of war, would you enlist? What is your opinion about an international army? About armed peace? About nationalisation of ammunition manufactures? About mutual assistance pacts?
2. GOVERNMENT. What is your opinion about nationalization of public utilities? About free trade? About the gold standard? About trusts?
3. SOCIAL WELFARE. What do you think of social-insurance? Relief work and direct relief? Immigration?

This ambitious programme will be studied from every angle, and Papers from different Universities will publish opinion from students who try to solve the questions."

Not a bad plan for McGill, indeed! Quite an idea to whet the appetite of our University intellectuals . . .

Colonel Bovey
 AN article of "La Presse" seems well worth quoting and commenting upon. It concerns a declaration made by Colonel Bovey, which the reporter entitled "Bi-Linguism at McGill." It shows once more the broadmindedness of Colonel Bovey, who, you will remember, has just won the Prix David for his famous book "Canadien." As a matter of fact Colonel Bovey's attitude, throughout recent years especially, has made numerous friends for McGill.

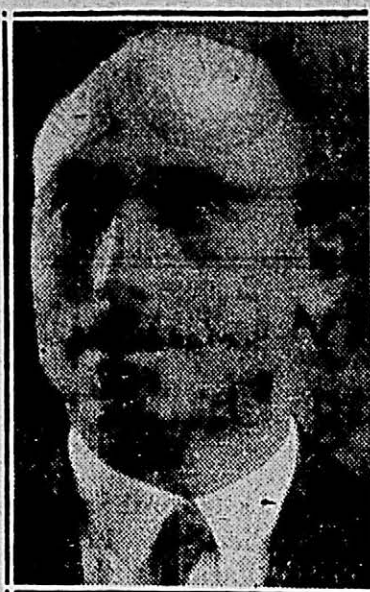

"For some years McGill University has received not a few demands for an English course for Canadians of French descent. These demands have taken such a turn, during the last two years, and have been so pressing that the University authorities have just decided to act. Last year, a professor, Miss Nelghorn, who knows French very well, was charged with a first course, in teaching the elements of English to French-Canadian Students. This initial attempt was so satisfactory that the University has decided to add a higher course this year. These courses will be the counterpart of the French courses given to English-speaking Canadians at McGill, which are attended by twelve hundred students approximately."

Patriotism

Quartier Latin, Oct. 18th
 "WHAT is the meaning of the word 'Motherland'?" Is it an abstract thought? Is it the land we daily tramp upon with our feet, or a land that has seen us grow since childhood? Is it merely a purely geographical delimitation, a mere portion of the map of the globe?

No! for we do not die for an abstract idea, nor for a mere strip of land, trodden by our first hesitating feet. "Motherland," why that word represents our entire race, the very land of our ancestors, it evokes a sacred, a divine sentiment that every one has engraved deep in his heart? It is a being whose body is the land to which we are attached by sweet memories, and whose soul breathes all our religious and patriotic aspirations, and is a sacred legacy transmitted to us by our forbears and which we have a solemn duty to transmit intact to generations to come."

Resigns

Urbain Molmans, popular McGill Rowing mentor who announced his retirement yesterday.

This interesting article was written by Gerard Ducharme. The subject is a vital one. Many people forget even the notion of a "motherland" or if they admit the idea, forget they have duties toward their motherland. Space does not allow us to quote further, although the article is very well written indeed. The words we have just quoted lose their vividness and rhythm in the process of translation, but the French text is really a literary piece of work of a high character.

Cardinal Villeneuve

There is no need to introduce Cardinal Villeneuve, Primate of the Catholic Church of Canada. He is a well-known figure, even among the Students of our University, from which he received an Honorary Degree a year ago. He has a very high standing in educational circles through the practical interest he has always taken in educational matters. The following lines are taken from the Montreal Star of October 27th:

"Advice to the youth of the country to lend an ear to criticism offered by their elders and to respect the individual opinions of others was given yesterday by Cardinal J. M. P. Villeneuve, at an address delivered at a luncheon of the Junior Bar of Quebec.

"Cardinal Villeneuve also discussed the spiritual and social problems of modern youth and advised them to read good books to help them understand the workings of the world of today. He put his young listeners on their guard against 'long-winded' speaking and pedantry, and asked that they practice an 'integral Christianity.'"

Laval University (Quebec)

Next week we expect to be able to publish interesting data about the events and happenings of our sister-University (Laval) of Old Quebec. We have brought fresh memories from our last trip to Quebec, where the true varsity spirit is at its best and where traditions are religiously maintained.

Our arduous labours whilst there, due to the stern questioning of the examiners for the Bar, did not prevent us from enjoying our visit.

CLAUDE DUBUC.

Players' Club Cast for Shavian Satire Selected Yesterday

(Continued from page 1)

of President Heward Stikeman. The remaining executive positions are as follows:

Business Manager Earl Wiele
 Costume Manager Mary Hamilton
 Publicity Manager Jean McGoun
 Properties Manager Louis Johnson
 Ticket Manager James Moore
 Lighting Manager Harold Snelgrove
 House Manager Margaret Edgar
 Stage Manager Ward O'Connor

Y. M. H. A. Sponsors Literature Lectures

(Continued from page 1)

Ulysses on public and on critics—its position, fore-runner of closer of a period? His later experiments.
 Dec. 7, 1934—D. H. Lawrence—Controversies over his body—dual role as artist and prophet—his literary art and its limitations—his treatment of the subconscious. His influence.

Dec. 14, 1934—Aldous Huxley and his followers—rarely of his kind in English literature—his many-sidedness and its consequences — Point-Counterpoint—his criticisms of contemporary civilization.

Dec. 21, 1934—Luigi Pirandello—vogue of his plays in post-war times—his peculiar formula—his masterpiece, Six Characters in Search of an Author. His stories.

Dec. 28, 1934—Lynton Strachey and modern biography—A. Maurois, Ludwig, Zweig, and others—two main trends, "romancing" and "de-bunking" history—where Strachey excels and where he fails.

Jan. 3, 1935—Conclusion. The tendencies of the youngest writers and some examples.

Car Passes Arrive

A number of street car passes have arrived, and may be obtained from the Registrar's Office.

PICOBAC
A FRIENDLY SMOKE
 "Before I started to smoke Picobac I didn't have the friends I've got now. I tell you there's nothing like a pipe of Picobac for making you feel friendly towards folks."
 "And when you feel friendly towards them why they just naturally feel friendly towards you."
 "Picobac is what I call a friendly smoke. It's always friendly. It doesn't change."
 "Because it's a fully matured Burley, aged for at least two years in wood and the pick of Canada's Burley crop."
 "There's no bite to Picobac, you understand. Fill your pipe with Picobac and pass your pouch to the man next you. You will be on friendly terms right away. Because Picobac is certainly a mild, cool . . . sweet smoke."
 "And don't forget, you get more tobacco for your money . . . Good for making cigarettes, too."

NEW SEAL-TIGHT POUCH 15¢
 HANDY POCKET TIN 10¢
 ALSO IN 1/2-POUND "LOK-TOP" TINS

Picobac
 IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!
 GROWN IN SUNNY SOUTHERN ONTARIO

7

BANKING OFFICES Especially Convenient for MCGILL Students

For the keeping of bank accounts in which to deposit money from home, McGill students will find the following branches convenient to the University:

- On SHERBROOKE STREET:
At the intersections of:
Drummond Street—Guy Street.
- On PELL STREET:
At the intersection of Burnside Place.
- On ST. CATHERINE STREET:
At the intersections of:
Drummond Street—Mansfield Street—University Street—Bleury Street.

BANK OF MONTREAL

Established 1817

A Million Deposit Accounts Denote Confidence

HIGHEST QUALITY

COAL — COKE — FUEL OIL

FARQUHAR ROBERTSON
 LIMITED

360 Notre Dame St. W.

MARquette 1245

are all
 "degree" men graduates of the Murray
 School of Fine Cooking

BUY your EVENING PAPERS CHOCOLATE BARS PIPES MATCHES CIGARS CIGARETTES STAMPS at the TUCK SHOP

WEAR YOUR COLOURS TO KINGSTON!

McGill Daily
THE OLDEST COLLEGE DAILY IN CANADA
Published every week-day during the college year at 40 Sherbrooke St. West. Telephone Lancaster 7143.
Opinions expressed below are those of the Managing Board of the McGill Daily and not the official opinions of the Students' Society.
LINDSAY H. PLACE Editor-in-Chief
ALLISON A. M. WALSH Managing Editor
JOHN A. NOLAN News Editor
E. BRODIE HICKS Sports Editor
G. H. FLETCHER Advertising Manager
ASSOCIATE EDITORS
Features: Morton Bloomfield
Exchanges: Reuben Friedman '35
A. Styles '35 J. H. McDonald '36
P. F. Vineberg '35 L. Picard '36
W. M. Chamard '35 A. Gruber '36
I. Ryans '36 D. G. Amaron '36
M. Goldfine '35
IN CHARGE OF THIS ISSUE
News: Art Bloomfield
Sports: Hy. Perelmutter
REPORTERS
Nancy Murray, Joyce Marshall, Frances Brown, Sydney Cooper, Solly Goldstein, Mary Langstaff, Arnold Isenman, Art Cohen.

Hallowe'en

FESTIVAL days have been set aside and observed in all ages, and among practically all peoples. Historians, in attempting to give some account of the origin of our holidays, almost always refer to them as events connected with the religious life of the people or some other great natural event. These explanations, however, are rather excuses than mere causes. The real great cause is that man needs regular playdays, fun days, for he has not yet learned to stifle his natural instincts without brief periods of freedom. There is no folk holiday which has taken a stronger hold upon and has so captivated the popular imagination as that celebrated on the eve of October 31st, Hallowe'en. The name means hallowed, or holy evening. It is really an autumn festival, as May Day is a spring one. But peasant superstition has clouded its original meaning and has associated it with the delightful mystery of ghosts, witches, spirits and hobgoblins. And because of these superstitious notions, Hallowe'en appeals to the public fancy and all its old customs and traditions have remained. The ancient Druids believed that on the night of this great autumn festival the great lord of death, Saman, called together all the wicked souls that had been condemned within the past twelve months, to inhabit the bodies of animals. Due to the wicked spirits that prowled about on this night, they lit large bonfires, and kept a sharp lookout. It is obvious that it is from the Druids that we derived the belief that witches and ghosts walk abroad on Hallowe'en — a belief still prevalent among rural peoples in Europe. Another probable source may be found in the festival that the Romans had on the first of November in honour of Pomona. Nuts and apples, as tokens of the winter store of fruits, were roasted before great bonfires. The fact that even to this day these two fruits are used extensively in Hallowe'en games is sufficient indication that the Roman festival did have a share in the establishment of our traditional one. Originally a very simple festival and one confined almost wholly to the church, it soon began to interest the lower classes in a peculiar way, and weird tales of spirits and goblins took root, then they circulated among them until it became a general and widespread notion that ghosts and spirits walked abroad on Hallowe'en. The black cat, the traditional companion of witches, is ever present on this holiday. The pumpkin is a symbol of the harvest. Stealing gates, buggies, chairs, etc., a popular prank until recently, was a relic of the time when gates and gate-posts disappeared and were said to have been stolen by the evil spirits. According to tradition, everything connected with Hallowe'en smacks of the supernatural. Today many of the old customs and superstitions have disappeared, yet much remains of the tradition of this festival, even though the greater part of its significance or meaning is lost to us. The holiday, has, like most other ones of its nature, been attracting the populace less and less as time goes on, and is becoming more of an occasion for child pranks. Whether this is due to apathy, indifference, or because of an aloof disregard for such unscientific or "childish things" is a problem for the sociologist.

efforts are made to correct this evil. The increasing importance of professional careers has led to an undue importance and emphasis being laid on the practical subjects, such as mathematics, physics, chemistry, and the like. This has only been done at the expense of the "cultural" subjects; it is very seldom that more than an hour a week is allotted to the study of rhetoric, of the art and composition of writing correctly our own language — whereas six and even seven hours a week are devoted to the study of mathematics, which very frequently are never used. The effects of this unequal distribution are becoming ever increasingly plain. In Victorian times it was almost a universal custom for young ladies to keep a diary — in which they recorded their inmost thoughts and experiences. Through constant and everyday practice, they gained a light, informal, easy and yet correct manner of expressing themselves in writing. This is no mere fable, but concrete fact. If we were to examine a letter written by a person of our present generation, we would stand a very fine chance of reading a dull, involved, and very prosaic piece of composition. Those qualities of sprightliness, informality, and readability so characteristic of good letter writing which come only after long hours of practice, are practically a negative quantity today.

In the days of the 19th century when the traveller went abroad, he took his "sketchbook" with him, and copied down the vivid and lasting impressions which he received; and on his return home, they read and passed the sketchbooks around among their friends. Today although there is more travel, and far more people go abroad, their literary output has dropped singularly. There was a conscious effort upon the part of the writers of these books, to put a certain literary effort into their work; they intended them to be read, to be discussed. Undoubtedly by far the greater part of it was only mediocre prose — there was the use of hackneyed expressions, time-worn descriptions, etc. — but nevertheless, there was a certain fluency and ease of writing evident. What we require today, is more practice in writing; in our schools, in our everyday life, in our recreations, in everything we do. We should forget that sense of restraint, that fear of being laughed at, and just go ahead and write — even if it is trash. Practice makes perfect.

THE UNIVERSITY didn't want them much but got 'em . . . you know how public opinion is . . . their ancestry is something that never was quite cleared up, but their presence is undeniably a fact . . . some term the spots of brown to be seen on them, tan . . . but the more caustic element would term it nothing but rust . . . However, one does so dislike the naked, very naked, truth . . . they have ever been the centre of a controversy centred around the problem whether or not life is, or is not, a bowl of cherries . . . but these, in question hold up their end of the affair very well . . . They are male, and are possessed of the patience of Job . . . evidently they cannot endure the cold . . . they spend the winter in a privy-like octagonal-shaped mansion (NOT 3480 University St.) . . . they have been the butt of jokes and satirical experts . . . the latter going in for blue unthinkables, which have still stood the onslaughts of time . . . Max Ford once remarked that they reminded him of Harvard, Princeton and Cornell holding up the Yale Bowl . . . while somebody else tried to draft them for the Players' Club . . . they curse the hand that made them . . . but alas, like the poor, they are always with us . . . they rarely crack a smile, and still more rarely a joke . . . they have absolutely no sense of humor, nor any spirit whatsoever . . . they are not members of the C. O. T. C. . . yet they are more enduring than bronze and have been chiselled . . . who are they?

THE new McGill yell, which informs all and sundry that we love "Our Fighting Redmen—McGill's own Redmen," and ends up in a fashion that would put Amy Semple MacPherson to shame, spurs us on to see what we can do in that direction. Since with this masterpiece, a new trend in dignifying the words of college yells has manifested itself, we hasten to add our fuel to the embers. The cheer-leaders must strike a Napoleonic pose, and with the forefinger of the left hand, lead the gaping multitudes thusly:

INasmuch as there are Possibilities and probabilities Of our distinguished and beloved Redmen Emerging from this contest victorious, We, the onlookers and supporters, Urge the players to keep up the Noble work. Let us exhort, But by no means vociferously Or in an undignified manner, Our belligerent bearers of the Red! Raw!

The last lines should be uttered in a somewhat crescendo fashion, after which a vote of thanks to the opposing team should be moved. And of course passed. Then restrained, and slightly enthusiastic hand-clapping would be permissible.

Pawns of Destiny
INJURIES mean nothing to our gallant Red Chessmen, if we can believe that sensational story blazoned forth on a remote corner of Page Two of The Daily. According to said reports, the gallant vice-president of these Pawnsters, who is hopping from C to B Minor company, sprained a ligament in his right thumb while grabbing greedily at a gambit, and will enter the coming hostilities with his left hand. We watched the squad as they worked out for a correspondence match with the House of David, and Coach Shephard ran them through a vigorous stamp-licking drill. What with the magnificent Brzezinski-Schvitch System of masked plays that have been adopted, our crippled maestros of the Poshapawnandthinkanhour Brigade are sure to emerge, if not victorious, at least happy in the realization that they have done their little bit for their Alma Mater. And considering the fact that our Brigade and Philatelic prospects are so bright this year, our football squad must come through, or else the Stadium will henceforth be used for major chess tournaments, which would necessitate the installation of sleeping quarters for spectators. Pawn to king four, and how have YOU been?

Woe Is Me!
A COLUMNATOR's life is not a happy one. If he's a flop, he just stops columnizing, and if he happens to please the polli, his lot is even worse. For then he is obliged to keep going. He cannot relax, he must be hypercritical of everything at all times. He has to offend some people to make others laugh, while he has to drive home his barbed shafts in a vein of the greatest good humour, even when he feels that a bludgeon with a nail through one end would do the trick better. And finally, when he finds himself violently attacked in correspondence columns, he feels that he has reached the pinnacle of success. Which all goes to prove precisely nothing. Or possibly less. This pseudo philosophizing doesn't seem to belong, and we somehow feel the lack of the chaste cocoa that is doled out at the Philosophical Society's intellectual debauches. It simply leaves yours truly with a headache, so he passes it on to his readers. However, the only recompense is that in addition to Life being Real and Earnest, it provides the setting for some of the rarest farces. Among which undergraduate coltich life takes an A-1 rating.

Answer
THE subject of today's Pain Portrait is NOT the Campus Statue. It's Prohlaher, Gladys and Mcparifootin mournfully agreeing that the burden of being amusing on and off Page Two is an arduous one to bear.

PANEGYRICUS

By McParfootin

Pardonable Plagiarism

Once a week, with unfailing regularity, there appears on this very page, a short sketch called Pen Portraits. It purports to give a word-picture of our various profs with such unfailing accuracy (and in effect does) that those in whose hands the tremendous responsibility of educating us lies, vie with one another (we assume) in claiming the praises and disclaiming — the vegetable allusions. Our own recently unearthed moronic tendencies lead us to follow the old adage of "Monkey see, monkey do; or, give me back my marbles," and hand our tormented readers a new angle on the portrait business. We're going to offer you a pen-portrait, with this variation: At the end of this column (and this is a gag to make you wade through the stuff) we will name the person we have been describing. If you skip the intervening paragraphs, and jump from the next to the very last, you're absolutely disqualified, and I won't play with you any more!

THE UNIVERSITY didn't want them much but got 'em . . . you know how public opinion is . . . their ancestry is something that never was quite cleared up, but their presence is undeniably a fact . . . some term the spots of brown to be seen on them, tan . . . but the more caustic element would term it nothing but rust . . . However, one does so dislike the naked, very naked, truth . . . they have ever been the centre of a controversy centred around the problem whether or not life is, or is not, a bowl of cherries . . . but these, in question hold up their end of the affair very well . . . They are male, and are possessed of the patience of Job . . . evidently they cannot endure the cold . . . they spend the winter in a privy-like octagonal-shaped mansion (NOT 3480 University St.) . . . they have been the butt of jokes and satirical experts . . . the latter going in for blue unthinkables, which have still stood the onslaughts of time . . . Max Ford once remarked that they reminded him of Harvard, Princeton and Cornell holding up the Yale Bowl . . . while somebody else tried to draft them for the Players' Club . . . they curse the hand that made them . . . but alas, like the poor, they are always with us . . . they rarely crack a smile, and still more rarely a joke . . . they have absolutely no sense of humor, nor any spirit whatsoever . . . they are not members of the C. O. T. C. . . yet they are more enduring than bronze and have been chiselled . . . who are they?

Yells . . . A Suggestion

THE new McGill yell, which informs all and sundry that we love "Our Fighting Redmen—McGill's own Redmen," and ends up in a fashion that would put Amy Semple MacPherson to shame, spurs us on to see what we can do in that direction. Since with this masterpiece, a new trend in dignifying the words of college yells has manifested itself, we hasten to add our fuel to the embers. The cheer-leaders must strike a Napoleonic pose, and with the forefinger of the left hand, lead the gaping multitudes thusly:

INasmuch as there are Possibilities and probabilities Of our distinguished and beloved Redmen Emerging from this contest victorious, We, the onlookers and supporters, Urge the players to keep up the Noble work. Let us exhort, But by no means vociferously Or in an undignified manner, Our belligerent bearers of the Red! Raw!

The last lines should be uttered in a somewhat crescendo fashion, after which a vote of thanks to the opposing team should be moved. And of course passed. Then restrained, and slightly enthusiastic hand-clapping would be permissible.

Pawns of Destiny
INJURIES mean nothing to our gallant Red Chessmen, if we can believe that sensational story blazoned forth on a remote corner of Page Two of The Daily. According to said reports, the gallant vice-president of these Pawnsters, who is hopping from C to B Minor company, sprained a ligament in his right thumb while grabbing greedily at a gambit, and will enter the coming hostilities with his left hand. We watched the squad as they worked out for a correspondence match with the House of David, and Coach Shephard ran them through a vigorous stamp-licking drill. What with the magnificent Brzezinski-Schvitch System of masked plays that have been adopted, our crippled maestros of the Poshapawnandthinkanhour Brigade are sure to emerge, if not victorious, at least happy in the realization that they have done their little bit for their Alma Mater. And considering the fact that our Brigade and Philatelic prospects are so bright this year, our football squad must come through, or else the Stadium will henceforth be used for major chess tournaments, which would necessitate the installation of sleeping quarters for spectators. Pawn to king four, and how have YOU been?

Woe Is Me!
A COLUMNATOR's life is not a happy one. If he's a flop, he just stops columnizing, and if he happens to please the polli, his lot is even worse. For then he is obliged to keep going. He cannot relax, he must be hypercritical of everything at all times. He has to offend some people to make others laugh, while he has to drive home his barbed shafts in a vein of the greatest good humour, even when he feels that a bludgeon with a nail through one end would do the trick better. And finally, when he finds himself violently attacked in correspondence columns, he feels that he has reached the pinnacle of success. Which all goes to prove precisely nothing. Or possibly less. This pseudo philosophizing doesn't seem to belong, and we somehow feel the lack of the chaste cocoa that is doled out at the Philosophical Society's intellectual debauches. It simply leaves yours truly with a headache, so he passes it on to his readers. However, the only recompense is that in addition to Life being Real and Earnest, it provides the setting for some of the rarest farces. Among which undergraduate coltich life takes an A-1 rating.

Answer
THE subject of today's Pain Portrait is NOT the Campus Statue. It's Prohlaher, Gladys and Mcparifootin mournfully agreeing that the burden of being amusing on and off Page Two is an arduous one to bear.

OUR GALLIC NEIGHBOURS

Prepare For Tomorrow

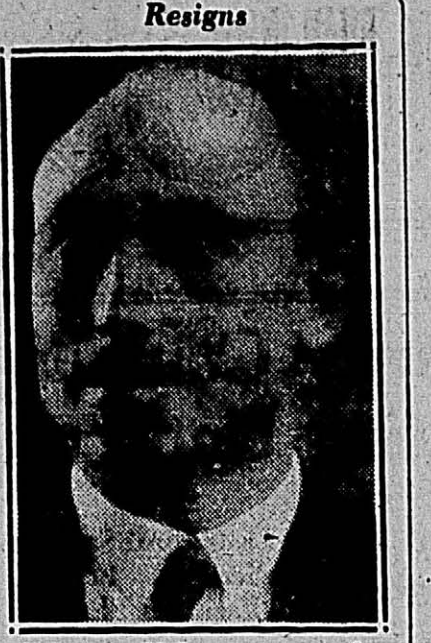

Quartier Latin, Oct. 25th
STUDENTS, writes Mr. Adrien Descoeteaux, should prepare for tomorrow's struggle, since youths of today will be tomorrow's leaders. He cites interesting facts some of which we quote:
"In the United States, there was recently, organized by a group of students 'The Association of College Editors,' for the purpose of originating in the University Press a collective and concerted effort to lead the youth of today toward the great problems of the hour, problems we will have to solve sooner or later, or upon which we will be called to give an opinion. This organization has drafted a programme of studies on three principal subjects, of the greatest actuality:
1. WAR. In case of war, would you enlist? What is your opinion about an international army? About armed peace? About nationalization of ammunition manufactures? About mutual assistance pacts?
2. GOVERNMENT. What is your opinion about nationalization of public utilities? About free trade? About the gold standard? About trusts?
3. SOCIAL WELFARE. What do you think of social-insurance? Relief work and direct relief? Immigration? . . .
This ambitious programme will be studied from every angle, and Papers from different Universities will publish opinion from students who try to solve the questions."
Not a bad plan for McGill, indeed! Quite an idea to what the appetite of our University intellectuals. . .

Colonel Bovey

AN article of "La Presse" seems well-worth quoting and commenting upon. It concerns a declaration made by Colonel Bovey, which the reporter entitled "Bi-Lingualism at McGill." It shows once more the broadmindedness of Colonel Bovey, who, you will remember, has just won the Prix David for his famous book "Canadien." As a matter of fact Colonel Bovey's attitude, throughout recent years especially, has made numerous friends for McGill.
"For some years McGill University has received not a few demands for an English course for Canadians of French descent. These demands have taken such a turn, during the last two years, and have been so pressing that the University authorities have just decided to act. Last year, a professor, Miss Neighorn, who knows French very well, was charged with a first course, in teaching the elements of English to French-Canadian Students. This initial attempt was so satisfactory that the University has decided to add a higher course this year. These courses will be the counterpart of the French courses given to English-speaking Canadians at McGill, which are attended by twelve hundred students approximately."

Patriotism

Quartier Latin, Oct. 18th
"WHAT is the meaning of the word 'Motherland'?" Is it an abstract thought? Is it the land we daily tramp upon with our feet, or a land that has seen us grow since childhood? Is it merely a purely geographical delimitation, a mere portion of the map of the globe?
No! for we do not die for an abstract idea, nor for a mere strip of land, trodden by our first hesitating feet. "Motherland," why that word represents our entire race, the very land of our ancestors, it evokes a sacred, a divine sentiment that every one has engraved deep in his heart? It is a being whose body is the land to which we are attached by sweet memories, and whose soul breathes all our religious and patriotic aspirations, and is a sacred legacy transmitted to us by our forebears and which we have a solemn duty to transmit intact to generations to come."

Urban Molmans, popular McGill Rowing mentor who announced his retirement yesterday.

This interesting article was written by Gerard Ducharme. The subject is a vital one. Many people forget even the notion of a "motherland" or, if they admit the idea, forget they have duties toward their motherland. Space does not allow us to quote further, although the article is very well written indeed. The words we have just quoted lose their vividness and rhythm in the process of translation, but the French text is really a literary piece of work of a high character.

Cardinal Villeneuve

There is no need to introduce Cardinal Villeneuve, Primate of the Catholic Church of Canada. He is a well-known figure, even among the Students of our University, from which he received an Honorary Degree a year ago. He has a very high standing in educational circles through the practical interest he has always taken in educational matters. The following lines are taken from the Montreal Star of October 27th:

"Advice to the youth of the country to lend an ear to criticism offered by their elders and to respect the individual opinions of others was given yesterday by Cardinal J. M. P. Villeneuve, at an address delivered at a luncheon of the Junior Bar of Quebec. "Cardinal Villeneuve also discussed the spiritual and social problems of modern youth and advised them to read good books to help them understand the workings of the world of today. He put his young listeners on their guard against 'long-winded' speaking and pedantry, and asked that they practice an 'integral Christianity.'"

Laval University (Quebec)

Next week we expect to be able to publish interesting data about the events and happenings of our sister-University (Laval) of Old Quebec. We have brought fresh memories from our last trip to Quebec, where the true varsity spirit is at its best and where traditions are religiously maintained. Our arduous labours whilst there, due to the stern questioning of the examiners for the Bar, did not prevent us from enjoying our visit. CLAUDE DUBUC.

Players' Club Cast for Shavian Satire Selected Yesterday

(Continued from page 1)

of President Heward Stikeman. The remaining executive positions are as follows:
Business Manager . . . Earl Wiele
Costumes Manager . . . Mary Hamilton
Publicity Manager . . . Jean McCoun
Properties Manager . . . Louis Johnson.
Tickets Manager . . . James Moore
Lighting Manager . . . Harold Snelgrove
House Manager . . . Margaret Edgar
Stage Manager . . . Ward O'Connor

Y. M. H. A. Sponsors Literature Lectures

(Continued from page 1)

Ulysses on public and on critics—its position, fore-runner of closer of a period? His later experiments.
Dec. 7, 1934—D. H. Lawrence—Controversies over his body—dual role as artist and prophet—his literary art and its limitations—his treatment of the subconscious. His influence.
Dec. 14, 1934—Aldous Huxley and his followers—variety of his kind in English literature—his many-sidedness and its consequences — Point-Counterpoint—his criticisms of contemporary civilization.
Dec. 21, 1934—Luigi Pirandello—vogue of his plays in post-war times—his peculiar formula—his masterpiece, Six Characters in Search of an Author. His stories.
Dec. 28, 1934—Lytton Strachey and modern biography—A. Maurois, Ludwig, Zweig, and others—two main trends, "romancing" and "de-bunking" history—where Strachey excels and where he fails.
Jan. 3, 1935—Conclusion. The tendencies of the youngest writers and some examples.
Car Passes Arrive
A number of street car passes have arrived, and may be obtained from the Registrar's Office.

PICOBAC
A FRIENDLY SMOKE
"Before I started to smoke Picobac I didn't have the friends I've got now. I tell you there's nothing like a pipe of Picobac for making you feel friendly towards folks."
"And when you feel friendly towards them why they just naturally feel friendly towards you."
"Picobac is what I call a friendly smoke. It's always friendly. It doesn't change."
"Because it's a fully matured Burley, aged for at least two years in wood and the pick of Canada's Burley crop."
"There's no bite to Picobac, you understand. Fill your pipe with Picobac and pass your pouch to the man next you. You will be on friendly terms right away. Because Picobac is certainly a mild cool . . . sweet smoke."
"And don't forget, you get more tobacco for your money . . . Good for making cigarettes, too."
NEW SEAL-TIGHT POUCH 13¢
HANDY POUCH TIN 10¢
ALSO IN 1/2-POUND "LOK-TOP" TINS
"IT DOES TASTE GOOD IN A PIPE!"
Picobac
GROWN IN SUNNY SOUTHERN ONTARIO

BANKING OFFICES Especially Convenient for MCGILL Students
For the keeping of bank accounts in which to deposit money from home, McGill students will find the following branches convenient to the University:
On SHERBROOKE STREET: At the intersections of: Drummond Street—Guy Street.
On PEEL STREET: At the intersection of Burnside Place.
On ST. CATHERINE STREET: At the intersections of: Drummond Street—Manfield Street—University Street—Blaisy Street.
BANK OF MONTREAL
Established 1817
A Million Deposit Accounts Denote Confidence

HIGHEST QUALITY
COAL — COKE — FUEL OIL
FARQUHAR ROBERTSON LIMITED
360 Notre Dame St. W. MARquette 1245

Chefs AT Murray's
are all "degree" men graduates of the Murray School of Fine Cooking
BUY your EVENING PAPERS CHOCOLATE BARS PIPES MATCHES CIGARS CIGARETTES STAMPS at the TUCK SHOP
WEAR YOUR COLOURS TO KINGSTON!

Slants On Sports

By A. G.

A SURE sign of the return of Francis Joseph Shaughnessy and his charges to prominence in the Canadian intercollegiate football world is the announcement of the C.N.R. that they will run a special excursion to Kingston next Saturday for those McGill students who wish to pray for their team's success from the nearest possible vantage point, which in this case happens to be the Richardson Stadium in Kingston. It takes a smart business man to gauge public enthusiasm for any given subject, and that boy in the rear who just said something about the national deficit will please leave the room. So it is expected that a large number of students will make the pilgrimage to the native haunt of that amazing Tricolour squad which laughed off a mid-season loss of four regulars through suspension by promptly trimming a disdained Varsity team the following week and barely losing to the same Torontonians last week in a hair-raising, heart-breaking one-point defeat. And this is the gang that Shagmen have to take to remain in the intercollegiate title hunt. We now reach the point where a suitable explanation is in order why our choice for next Saturday should be McGill and not Queen's. In the first place, you may have heard of Tom Richert's kicking performance in last Saturday's contest here against Western. No? Well, he was plenty good enough, and a whole lot better than Johnny Munroe, Tricolour booter, has been to date. If he can repeat that performance in Kingston, the game will be won right there and then. Secondly, Joe Smith and George Degnan will be available for regular duty next week, which should make plenty of difference in the forward pass attack and further strengthen the line, which is admittedly the best in the union anyhow. Thirdly, the Redmen have their backs to the wall. They had their backs to the wall last year when Queen's came here leading the league, and when the game was over the local backs had come off the wall, and the remains of the Tricolour squad had to be shipped home in a box marked "Fragile." The score that day was 17-1 for McGill, and although it should be a lot closer next week, we still think the Shaughnessy Shocktroops will come out on the long end.

UNDER the heading "Football Excursions" we have a snappy little item entitled "The Kingfish Stages A Blowout For Louisiana State." In case you never heard of the Kingfish or Louisiana State either for that matter, we hasten to supply the necessary information. The former is U.S. Senator Huey P. Long, about whose first name many an exultating gag has been pulled, and the latter is the university of his constituency, to whose entire student body he offered a "loan" of seven dollars for the purposes of attending that institution's football game last week against Vanderbilt University. Needless to say, the students made a dive for the offices of the Kingfish and consequently the Nashville-bound train that Saturday afternoon carried some three thousand of them to the game, which Louisiana eventually won by an overwhelming margin. Do we hear any offers from local politicians? No, eh? Well, this department is willing to subscribe seven dollars towards the establishment of a fund which will send three thousand local politicians to Tasmania, and another seven for a fund to keep them there. How's that for public spirit?

THAT abrupt announcement of Urbain Molman to resign from his position as coach of the McGill Rowing Club came as a shock to us. The quiet reserved mentor, unboastful and unobtrusive in victory or defeat, steps out because of a firm belief that the failure in recent years of the Red crew to get anywhere in Canadian competition is possibly due to continued use of the Continental system which he instituted here ten years ago after his advent to McGill on the crest of many personal brilliant European exhibitions in his chosen field. For the first six or seven years of his tenure here, the likeable Belgian crew-master was singularly successful, but now he seems to think that a change will do the martlet-crowded water forces more good than a continuation of the old system. And to he gallantly fades from the picture, over the protests of McGill athletic officialdom whose voices were drowned out by the outgoing coach's heroic convictions. No new mentor has as yet been chosen to step into Mr. Molman's place.

BOBMY BELL and a full complement of student managers and hockey players are haunting the Forum these days, gazing longingly and wistfully at the ice in-between practice periods, longingly forward to the opening of the Senior Q.A.H.A. schedule which commences next Saturday night, and wistfully back to last year's sensational Red squad which compiled a remarkable string of victories before succumbing to the eventual Allan Cup winners. Those big Hawks from little Moncton. Everybody is asking everybody else what prospects the present group of players have for repeating the record of last season's aggregation. The answer probably depends on how good the opposition is. Without a doubt, Dapper Dentist Bell has just as fine a nucleus to start with as he had several years ago when Kenny Farmer, Nelson Crutchfield, Maurice Powers, Jack McGill and the rest of the late-lamented members of last season's group broke into intercollegiate ice circles. Several members of last season's team are still on deck, and raring to go. Hollie McHugh, who started as a regular last winter, should slip naturally between the pipes with the same effectiveness with which he formerly confounded opposing forwards. Gordie Meiklejohn, the Wisconsin Whiz, and Alan Hall, are all set to step back into their regular defence positions. Substitutes last season, Freddy Wigle, Bob McLernon, Rolfe Lamb and Jean-Paul Elie are once more available for duty, the latter two however having first to get that little matter of the intercollegiate football race off their chests. Gordie Crutchfield and Tommy Morse, who played two years ago with the senior and junior squads respectively are back at college again, and have both been out to practice for the last ten days or so. The younger Crutchy, who used to perform on the same line with Nelson and Maroon, should prove a valuable addition to the squad. At this point, your scribe would like to express himself on the subject of Alex Duff and Cam Dickinson. These two kids played for Canadian juniors and McGill juniors respectively last season, and both at that time showed the necessary class to create a sensation in senior ranks this year. Duff was on the ice for several minutes on behalf of the Canadian seniors in the McGill play-off series last year, and he managed to outspeed Crutchfield, Farmer, and company on a goodly number of occasions, than which there is practically nothing speedier. Dickinson is no molasses on the blades either, and can step in any company. Crosby, a Saskatchewan emigre, Walker, a local high school lad, and Cliff MacKay, a ditto with plenty of stamina and tough as they make them, are other candidates for the squad, as are Bob Pacaud and Dave Tennant, who occupied the nets for the juniors and intermediates last season. We forgot to mention Johnny Riddell, who played two years ago but had to forego the ice sport last winter due to scholastic reasons. He should make a determined bid for his former position.

SPEAKING of last year's hockey squad, we read in the papers where Nelson Crutchfield and Jack McGill celebrated their first game under Canadian pro colours by getting into a rousing embroglio with Johnny Gagnon, Jean Pusie and various other members of the Boston Bruins, thereby officially opening both the pre-season exhibition games and the open season of bears. Big Crutchy was always a firm believer of mixing business with pleasure, or punches with both, but we sigh to think of his mild-mannered team-mate rolling promiscuously about on the ice with, of all people, a man who has never been to college. To what lengths will soiled professionalism go!

RED MERMEN MEET DOMINION CHAMPS INPOLOTILTSTONITE

Stack Up Against Y.M.H.A. Senior and Junior Squads

The Y.M.H.A. Mount Royal Ave. pool will be the scene of tonight's Canadian Aquatic Polo Association fixtures when the Red polo squads go out in search of a double victory against the "Y." The seniors will be seeking their first win while the juniors hope to duplicate early season wins against Y.M.C.A. and Columbus Whites. Both games are scheduled to start at 8:30 p.m.

In last week's games both McGill teams received their initial setbacks of the current schedule. The senior natators were taken into camp by a powerful M.A.A.A. aggregation. The Redmen were able to hold off their more deft rivals in the first half but succumbed to a furious last period attack. M.A.A.A. riders in three counties in this frame while the Reds were only able to sag the twine once. The closing whistle blew with the score M.A.A.A. 8, McGill 4.

On the same evening the McGill junior outfit went down before the strong Columbus Blue squad in a hotly contested encounter. The Redmen's three goal lead in the first moments of the game was wiped out by the aggressive Columbus lads before the half was over. Gilmour, McGill goalie, was penalized in the latter minutes of the game, thus enabling Columbus to shoot home the winning counter in a thrilling finish.

Both Y.M.H.A. teams have for the past few seasons remained undefeated and are at present holders of the Dominion championships. The Redmen are out to do the unexpected and the evening's twin-bill should provide the fans with plenty of excitement.

Line-ups:

McGill Seniors: Wayland, goal; Skinner, defence; Shiragovitch, Shapiro, halves; Bourne, centre; McLean, Freeman, forwards.

Juniors: Gilmour, goal; Smyth, defence; Oker, Percy, halves; Wilson, centre; Powell, Elliott, forwards.

Y.M.H.A. Seniors: Silverman, Saibil, Oshitzer, Kushner, A. Sohmer, Taffer, Stein, Tucker, Aronovitch, Pepperman.

Y.M.H.A. Juniors: Rabinovitch, M. Sohmer, Jackson, Cohen, Freedman, Silverstone, Fargeon, Goldstein, Cooperburg.

McGill Scullers Lose Mentor As Molmans Resigns

Loss of Coach Will Be Keenly Felt

ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE yesterday morning by the McGill Rowing Club that Urbain Molmans, coach of the oarsmen for the last ten years, had resigned his position. The loss of Coach Molmans will be keenly felt, and it was only with great regret that his resignation was accepted by the rowing club.

Coming to McGill some ten years ago, Molmans brought with him a great reputation as an oarsman. He swept European rowing circles by his all-round ability and technique, and managed to garner practically every honour available to a European oarsman.

Had Notable Career

His notable career began in 1903, when he represented the Club Sport Nautique de Ghent together with a fine crew, and stroked his way to victory in the Grand Challenge, then the most important rowing race in the world. Molmans proved his ability again the following year when he repeated the notable feat, and managed to cop first place in this great event.

Following these victories, Molmans proceeded to build up a great reputation throughout all European countries where rowing flourished, by garnering premier honours in eights, fours and pairs.

When the McGill Rowing Club was organized Molmans with his general repute and ability, was made honorary coach. He managed to build up a group of oarsmen to whom he imparted the intricate technique of rowing and mainly through his efforts brought five Dominion championships to McGill.

In 1926 and 1927, Molmans coached the McGill crew to brilliant victories over the Varsity rowing representatives though since then his efforts have not been so successful. This year's win by Toronto marks the seventh successive time that the Blueboys have swept in ahead of the Red oarsmen. In a grizzling rain, the Redmen lost out to a more experienced though certainly not a more game crew.

Popular With Crew

Coach Molmans was quite popular with his men, and members of the rowing club expressed the opinion that his loss will be keenly felt. When he came to McGill, the enthusiastic group he had to work with, were as a whole

Senior Footballers Resume Workouts For Queen's Game

Red Squad at Full Strength —Points Toward Third Straight

TITLE HOPES BRIGHT

DEFINITELY contenders for the intercollegiate football title after the recent trouncing administered to the hapless Mustangs in a contest that revealed new scoring punch from an unexpected source, kicking, the McGill gridsters resumed workouts last night, after the usual week-end layoff. The Shagmen are pointing to the contest against the Galloping Gaels in Kingston, with added confidence.

After their surprisingly fine showing in straight football, with their plethora of finely geared, smooth and deceptive plays, it is expected that the forward pass, formerly the only spearhead of the Red squad's attack, will not loom so large as in the past. If Tom Richert repeats his classy performance of last Saturday, he will outkick Johnny Munro by miles, and that should turn the tide.

At Full Strength

With California Joe Smith, and George Degnan back in the fold, the team ran through a light signal and blocking practice, the field being too greasy for heavy scrimmage. Smith and Degnan are sure to see plenty of action against Queen's.

The team is now at full strength, and should more than match Queen's in every department of the game. It's no cinch beating Queen's on their own stamping ground, but the Redmen have done it before, and there's no reason why they shouldn't repeat.

English Rugby

There will be a practice this afternoon at the Stadium, in preparation for the game against Queen's in Kingston. Every player must turn out.

unfamiliar with rowing. Through his efforts, he launched the sport in very humble beginnings, and stayed to see the club develop and flourish.

Under his efficient guiding and coaching Urban had a willing crew for they appreciated his deep knowledge and technique of rowing. Feeling that a change from his Continental rowing system would be better for the club, Molmans has resigned his position.

As yet, no successor has been chosen, though a meeting will be held in the near future to fill the vacancy.

Meeting Is Held By Senior Group

An important meeting of the Senior Group of the Q.A.H.A. was held last night at the Windsor Hotel. New developments in the St. Francois Xavier case were brought up and Jimmy de Lalanne was delegated to conclude the arrangements.

It was also suggested that applications for membership cards be made as soon as possible, for the league opens this Saturday. So far, applications have been received from McGill senior and junior teams, and from Royals seniors and juniors.

Nobbs Track Captain

At the annual meeting of the McGill Senior Track team, perennial winners of the Intercollegiate title, under the able guidance of Coach Van Wagner, Frank Nobbs, who ran the 440, as well as on the winning relay squad,

Soccer Notes

Another title should find its resting place in the shelves of the Union Reading Room, when the McGill Soccer eleven journeys to Kingston this Saturday to meet the R.M.C. Cadets. Captain Jimmy Harkness' return to the line-up was welcomed by Coach Hay Finlay. Harkness and Flood worked well together in the full-back position, in yesterday's practice. Minnion was his usually versatile self filling both right and left half positions. Owen's leg injury bothered him, and had to be given a rest.

was elected captain for the season 1935-36. He succeeds Gordie Meiklejohn to the post.

INTERFACULTY RUGBY

Thursday, Nov. 1st: Law vs. MacDonald; Commerce vs. Arts.

FREEDOM FROM WORRY

An adequate Savings Account means more than money; it means security, independence, ability to enjoy life. Regular deposits in a Savings Account lead to the great objective for which all men strive—a mind at ease and free from worry.

THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

"As the Twig is Bent...."

Left to their own devices, underprivileged children, are at the mercy of every evil influence in neighbourhoods where evil influences abound. Realizing that the destinies of such children are being shaped now, many organizations in this city are devoting their energies to directing their steps.

Will you help?

You are inculcating in your own children ideals of sportsmanship and good-citizenship. You are protecting them from every harmful contact.

Will you help us to protect those who have no protector?

The organizations which need your support include the Parks and Playgrounds Association, the Griffintown Club, Montreal Boys' Association, Big Sister Association, University and Iverley Settlements, and the Negro Community Centre.

Their continued existence depends on YOU.

For twelve years the Federated Charities have united 33 appeals in one and for twelve years you have supported this appeal liberally. May we count on you again?

33 APPEALS IN ONE

Federated CHARITIES

13TH APPEAL

OCT. 29 -- NOV. 5

SPORTS NOTICES

INTERMEDIATE RUGBY

There will be an important practice tomorrow at 5:00.

FROSH FOOTBALL

All Frosh footballers must turn out today and tomorrow for important practices for Saturday's game at Bishop's.

SQUASH RACQUETS

A Squash Racquets match has been arranged with an undergraduate team from Hart House, Toronto. Will all players who would like to play in this match on Saturday morning, Nov. 10th, please get in touch with Gear McIntyre at FT. 9035 as soon as possible.

WRESTLING

Wrestling practices are held in the Montreal High gym Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 5 to 6 o'clock. No previous experience is necessary, and anyone interested is urged to put in an appearance at once.

BOXING

Boxing practices are being held in (Continued on page 4)

Today:
2:00 p.m.—Badminton.
4:30 —Records I, Leader, G. V. Haythorne.
8:15 —Hallowe'en Hop.
Thursday:
2:15 p.m.—Records II, Leader, M. G. Brooks.
6:00 —Cabinet Meeting.
7:30—Badminton.
Friday:
5:00 p.m.—Choir Practice, Divinity Hall Chapel. J. King Gordon's Group will meet with Mr. Currier.

THE WORKSHOP

Make-up Class
Advanced Class—2:00 p.m.
Regular Class—3:00 p.m.
In the Player's Club Room. Bring Kleenex and cold cream.
Spreading The News
1:00—Mr. Hepburn.
3:00—Entire Cast.

PLAYER'S CLUB

There will be rehearsals for the COMPLETE cast as follows:
Today at 3:00, Act 1.
Thursday at 3:00, Act 2.
Friday at 3:00, Act 3.

It is imperative that every one be on time as the slackness of any one person holds the entire play up unnecessarily. If unable to come please leave a notice on the board outside the clubroom.

Will the scenery crew please meet Ward O'Connor in the Union at 2:15 this afternoon. Men only. VERY IMPORTANT.

Interfaculty B.W. & F.

McGill's leatherpushers, grunt-and-groan experts and foils-men are practicing assiduously for the Interfaculty B.W. & F. meet, which is scheduled to take place on February 8th. This meet will give the supporters a chance to see what McGill's possibilities of bringing the intercollegiate title back to Montreal are like.

"The Knight of the Burning Pestle"

Wednesday, Oct. 31:
3:00—Davidson, Guess, Kearney, Wilder, McMaster.
4:00—Piper, McMaster, Davidson, Wilder.
5:00—Hawkins, Kearney, Davidson, Guess, McMaster, Wilder.
Thursday, Nov. 1:
7:30—Northcott, Chapman, Wilder, McMaster, Dick, Sniderman, Dunn, Woodburn, Carroll, Pyper, Peterson, Willard, Lockwood, Piper, Davidson.
Friday, Nov. 2:
3:00—Davidson, Guess, Kearney, Willard, Dick, Carroll.
4:00—Hawkins, Carroll, Kearney, Willard, Northcott.

SCENERY CREW
Will the scenery crew please meet Ward O'Connor in the Union at 2:15 tomorrow afternoon. Very important.

Bandmen Meet

The McGill University Band will hold a practice this afternoon at 5:15 p.m. All members will please turn out.

Artsmen Default

The Med Manglers retained their strangle hold on first place in the Interfaculty Rugby League, when they chalked up their third victory yesterday, their opponents from Arts failing to field a squad.

MISSING PHONE NUMBERS

There are no telephone numbers on record in the Registrar's Office for the following students. Unless the missing numbers are handed in immediately, they will not appear in the Student's Directory.

Archibald, M. M.
Argue, G. H.
Arlano, A.
Armstrong, J. L.
Armstrong, M. F.
Banks, H. H. J.
Barclay, J. A.
Benoit, E. L.
Black, P. T.
Bonnar, N. R.
Boyd, G. F.
Breton, T. A.
Brissenden, L. A.
Brissenden, W. G.
Brookington, I. P.
Brown, M. G.
Brunet, J.
Burman, Irving.
Bussey, James F., B.Sc. 2
Cantin, Louis F., Law 3
Caplan, Estelle L., Com. 2
Chisholm, Juliet, Arts P.
Chu, Fred, Med. 1
Cochrane, Peter W., B.Sc. 1
Darche, Jean H., Med. 1
Deane, Norton A. W., B.A. 2
Denton, Hazel J., B.A. 4
Derksen, Carl E., Med. 5
Doherty, Daniel, B.A. 1
Doherty, Hugh, B.A. 4
Doherty, Helen E., Med. 4
Donahue, Clement L., Med. 1
Doubt, Rachel E., Grad. Nurse
Driscoll, Robert J., Eng. 1
Drummond, J. W. R., Eng. 1
Duncan, Gaylen R., Eng. 4
Duncan, William R., Med. 2
Dunn, Russell A., Eng. 1
Edie, Ernest D., Arch. 2
Elvett, Leslie T., Com. 3
Evans, Delano E., Eng. P.
Fabbro, Louis N., Arch. 4
Fabbro, Helen V., B.A. 4
Fabbro, Marjorie, B.A. 3
Findlay, Hugh J., B.A. 3
Filion, Homer W., Med. 5
Fleck, John, Arts P.
Fletcher, W. Ellwood, B.A. 1
Fraser, Gordon W., B.A. 1

Gala Razzle Dazzle Scheduled Tuesday

THE Arts Undergrad Razzle Dazzle will be held Tuesday, November sixth in the ballroom of the Union, when merriment will take the place of solemn study. Short skits will be presented by different classes in Arts. The entertainment will be increased by the distribution of free cocoa-cola and refreshments.
This event proved successful last year and it is expected to exceed last year's enjoyment. The committee expects that by this time the representatives in Arts have each arranged a play and collected all amateur talent obtainable.

Sport Notices

(Continued from page 3)
The Montreal High gymnasium from 5 to 6 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Coach Bert Light is giving classes in physical exercise as well, and urges all interested to turn out.

HARRIERS

There will be a Harrier practice for all harriers starting from the Field House at five o'clock this afternoon. The idea is that all Harriers run together over the course.

Hockey

Hockey hours at the Forum:
Mondays—5-6.
Tuesdays—1:30-2:30.
Wednesdays—1:30-2:30.
Thursdays—1:30-2:30.
Fridays—5-6.
Saturdays—12:30-1:30.

NOTICES

MECHANICAL CLUB TRIP

There will be a meeting of the Mechanical Club this afternoon in room 38 of the Engineering Building at 2:00 o'clock sharp. Mr. T. Jopling, a recent graduate, and now of the Canadian Tube and Steel, will outline a few interesting points in connection with the trip to his plant which will start about 2:30 p.m.
All those interested are invited to attend and any who have cars will help out considerably by bringing them.

BIOLOGY SOCIETY

The first meeting of the Biology Society will be held Tuesday evening, November 5 at 8:15 in the main lecture theatre of the Biology Building. Dr. Huskins, head of the newly created department of Genetics, will speak on "Current Trends in Genetics." This meeting is open to all students, and those interested are invited to attend.

M.W.S.A.A. BADMINTON CLUB

Will all members of the Club who wish to enter a doubles and singles tournament, please sign the list in the Common Room of the Arts Building. Will those wishing to play with special partners in the Doubles Tournament please indicate by signing together.

R.V.C. '35

Will any fourth year student who is interested in taking part in a charade to be given next Thursday at the first meeting of La Societe Francaise, please get in touch with the fourth year representative, Rita De Pierro, as soon as possible. About eight girls are needed. It is not necessary to know a great deal of French to take part.

JAZZ ORCHESTRA

Will all those who are interested in joining a jazz orchestra composed of McGill Students please telephone DO. 8727.

McGILL HISTORICAL CLUB

Members of the Club are requested to pay the annual fee of one dollar as soon as possible either to the President, or the Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Garnham. Second year men may pay the fee to their Representative, John Hodgson, Arts '37. The Executive of the Club will meet Wednesday, October 31, at one o'clock in the Union Grill Room.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

Students are reminded that the swimming fee of $1.50 must be paid before November 1st, to the Secretary, Physical Education, Office, R. V. C.

BADMINTON

The Graduate students have been allotted Thursday nights from 7:30 to 11:00 for badminton on the R.V.C. courts. Fees will be charged for birds as formerly.

SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH
The Social Science Research Council of New York City offer, for next season, Research Training Fellowships and Grants-in-Aid of Research in the Social Sciences. These are open to men and women who are citizens of the United States or Canada, who hold a Bachelor's degree, and are under the age of 25. The closing date for applications is March 15, 1935. Full particulars may be seen in the Office of the Secretary of the Graduate Faculty, in the MacDonald Physics Building.

FELLOWSHIP

A fellowship available for women of the value of £250 a year for three years, is offered for research at Girton College, Cambridge. Applications must be sent to the Secretary before January 1, 1935. Further particulars are in the Office of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research.

BADMINTON CLUB

Arrangements have definitely been made for the McGill Badminton Club to play at the Union this year. A meeting will be held in the Union Reading Room at one o'clock today, for the purpose of taking the names of those interested, and arranging for the opening of play.

COMMERCIAL LUNCHEON

The Commercial Undergraduate Society will hold its first luncheon of the year this coming Thursday at one o'clock in the Union Grill. The Society feel fortunate in having obtained

On Friday an R.V.C. Athletic Coupon book. Please leave with Bill Gentleman.

Kimball's College Physics. Also an English Edition Trigonometry Book. Please leave with Bill Gentleman, Arts Building.

On Geology 1 field trip over Mt. Royal, a hammer. Will finder please leave at Museum.

10-inch K and E Polyphase Duplex slide rule in black case. Finder please leave with Harry Grimdale in the Engineering Building.

A pair of black kid gloves with white stitching. Finder please leave with Bill Gentleman.

A lucky piece. A pink Mickey Mouse with white feet on a blue string. Extremely important that it should soon be recovered. Finder please leave in Bill Gentleman's office.

FOUND

About a week ago, a copy of "Democracy and Education." Apply to "The Weavers," 2092 University Street.

One rug, left in Women's Rest Room Arts Building, two or three weeks ago. Coat also found in Arts Building. Several other articles awaiting claimants. Apply to Bill Gentleman.

Will the owners of the property

listed below please call at the office of Strathcona Hall and claim it: One Student Handbook, one comb, one compact, one lipstick, one pair of gloves.

FOR SALE

One copy of Kimball's College Physics in excellent condition. Phone MA. 7939.

Denton Captains Track Seconds

At a meeting of the Intermediate Track Squad, held last night, Fred L. Denton, winner of both sprints in the meet with R.M.C. and Ottawa University, was unanimously elected captain for the coming season.

SAVE $5
by RENTING
UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITERS
From the maker
UNDERWOOD ELLIOTT FISHER LIMITED
639 Craig W. LA. 4241

DRAWING SUPPLIES

for
ENGINEERING STUDENTS
Mathematical Sets — Slide Rules — Tee Squares — Paper, etc.

ART EMPORIUM, LIMITED

1429 McGill College Avenue

The MCGILL UNION

Where friends meet for a game of billiards, for the friendly chat, for a cup of good coffee and where breakfast, lunch and dinner may be had at extremely low prices.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS

The 1934 Election will be held early in December. Applications must be in before November 10th. Scholars elected this year will enter Oxford in October 1935. A Rhodes Scholarship is worth 400 pounds a year for two years with an option of a third. Scholars may follow any course of studies they choose. Rhodes scholars are chosen without written examination on the basis of their School and College records.

A candidate to be eligible must —
(a) Be a male citizen of Canada and unmarried.
(b) Be between the ages of nineteen and twenty-five.
(c) Have completed at least his Sophomore year in College.

Candidates may apply either for the Province in which they have their ordinary private domicile, home or residence, or for any province in which they may have received at least two years of their college education before applying.

The qualities which will be considered in making the selection are:
(1) Literary and Scholastic ability and attainments.
(2) Qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy, kindness, unselfishness and fellowship.
(3) Exhibition of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates.
(4) Physical vigor as shown by interest in outdoor sports or in other ways.

Further information and application blanks may be obtained from the Provincial Secretary, A. D. P. Heeney, 215 St. James Street West, Montreal.

or from the Registrar's Office.

OLD MCGILL 1935

Will the following students of Arts '35 please have their photos taken TO-DAY at Rice's Studio. This must be done immediately. The cost is $2.75 which includes one extra copy of the photo.

Aber, S.	Farrell	Oswald
Belbin	Foggo	Peck
Black	Freeman	Perelmutter
Bloomfield	Garnham	Piddington
Blumer	Gemmell	Pitcher
Brown	Goldfine	Pollack
Brusilovsky	Hendelman	Poole
Buchanan	Law	Sare
Burns	Hulbig	Selp
Campbell	Johnson	Shepherd
Cardwell	Kerr	Simkover
Carsley	Laing	Simpson
Collard	MacFayden	Stikeman
Cooper	MacGregor	Swalsky
Coors	McLeish	Temple-Hill
Orelenstein	MacQueen	Vinokin
Dawson	Murray	Wilder
	Nugent	Zimmerman

DATE BUREAU REGISTRATION FORM

NAME
ADDRESS TELEPHONE
HOME TOWN
AGE HEIGHT WEIGHT
FACULTY YEAR COLOUR OF HAIR
Would you be willing to share expenses for the first date?
What type of person would you prefer to meet?
Approximately when would you like to be dated?
What amusements to you prefer?
Any other specifications or remarks?

To be filled in and left in a sealed envelope in the box at the "Daily" Office. Please enclose photograph. All information strictly confidential.

Today:
2.00 p.m.—Badminton.
4.30 —Records I, Leader, G. V. Haythorne.
8.15 —Hallowe'en Hop.
Thursday:
2.15 p.m.—Records II, Leader, M. G. Brooks.
6.00 —Cabinet Meeting.
7.30—Badminton.
Friday:
5.00 p.m.—Choir Practice, Divinity Hall Chapel. J. King Gordon's Group will meet with Mr. Currier.

THE WORKSHOP

Make-up Class
Advanced Class—2.00 p.m.
Regular Class—3.00 p.m.
In the Player's Club Room. Bring Kleenex and cold cream.
Spreading The News
1.00—Mr. Hepburn.
3.00—Entire Cast.

PLAYER'S CLUB

There will be rehearsals for the COMPLETE cast as follows:
Today at 3.00, Act 1.
Thursday at 3.00, Act 2.
Friday at 3.00, Act 3.
It is imperative that every one be on time as the slackness of any one person holds the entire play up unnecessarily. If unable to come please leave a notice on the board outside the clubroom.
Will the scenery crew please meet Ward O'Connor in the Union at 2.15 this afternoon. Men only. VERY IMPORTANT.

Interfaculty B.W. & F.
McGill's leatherpushers, grunt-and-groan experts and foilsman are practicing assiduously for the Interfaculty B. W. & F. meet, which is scheduled to take place on February 8th. This meet will give the supporters a chance to see what McGill's possibilities of bringing the intercollegiate title back to Montreal, are like.

"The Knight of the Burning Pestle"

Wednesday, Oct. 31:
3.00—Davidson, Guess, Kearney, Wilder, McMaster.
4.00—Piper, McMaster, Davidson, Wilder.
5.00—Hawkins, Kearney, Davidson, Guess, McMaster, Wilder.
Thursday, Nov. 1:
7.30—Northcott, Chapman, Wilder, McMaster, Dick, Snelderman, Dunn, Woodburn, Carroll, Pyper, Peterson, Willard, Lockwood, Piper, Davidson.
Friday, Nov. 2:
3.00—Davidson, Guess, Kearney, Willard, Dick, Carroll.
4.00—Hawkins, Carroll, Kearney, Willard, Northcott.
SCENERY CREW
Will the scenery crew please meet Ward O'Connor in the Union at 2.15 tomorrow afternoon. Very important.

Bandmen Meet

The McGill University Band will hold a practice this afternoon at 5.15 p.m. All members will please turn out.

Artsmen Default

The Med Manglers retained their strangle hold on first place in the Interfaculty Rugby League, when they chalked up their third victory yesterday, their opponents from Arts falling to field a squad.

Gala Razzle Dazzle Scheduled Tuesday

THE Arts Undergrad Razzle Dazzle will be held Tuesday, November sixth in the ballroom of the Union, when merriment will take the place of solemn study. Short skits will be presented by different classes in Arts. The entertainment will be increased by the distribution of free cocoa-cola and refreshments.
This event proved successful last year and it is expected to exceed last year's enjoyment. The committee expects that by this time the representatives in Arts have each arranged a play and collected all amateur talent obtainable.

Sport Notices

(Continued from page 3)
The Montreal High gymnasium from 5 to 6 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
Coach Bert Light is giving classes in physical exercise as well, and urges all interested to turn out.

HARRIERS

There will be a Harrier practice for all harriers starting from the Field House at five o'clock this afternoon. The idea is that all Harriers run together over the course.

Hockey

Hockey hours at the Forum:
Mondays—5-6.
Tuesdays—1.30-2.30.
Wednesdays—1.30-2.30.
Thursdays—1.30-2.30.
Fridays—5-6.
Saturdays—12.30-1.30.

MISSING PHONE NUMBERS

There are no telephone numbers on record in the Registrar's Office for the following students. Unless the missing numbers are handed in immediately, they will not appear in the Student's Directory.

Archibald, M. M.	Darche, Jean H., Med. 1
Argue, G. H.	Deane, Norton A. W., B.A. 2
Arlano, A.	Denton, Hazel J., B.A. 4
Armstrong, J. L.	Derkson, Carl E., Med. 5
Armstrong, M. F.	Doherty, Daniel, B.A. 1
Banks, H. H. J.	Doherty, Hugh, B.A. 2
Barclay, J. A.	Dollar, Helen E., Med. 4
Benoit, E. L.	Donahue, Clement L., Med. 1
Black, P. T.	Doull, Rachel E., Grad. Nurse
Bonnar, N. R.	Driscoll, Robert J., Eng. 1
Boyd, G. F.	Drummond, J. W. R., Eng. 1
Brown, T. A.	Duncan, Gaylen R., Eng. 4
Brissenden, L. A.	Duncan, William R., Med. 2
Brissenden, W. G.	Dunn, Russell A., Eng. 1
Brookington, I. P.	Ede, Ernest D., Arch. 2
Brown, M. G.	Ellyett, Leslie T., Com. 3
Brunet, J.	Evans, Delano E., Eng. P.
Burman, Irving	Fabbro, Louis N., Arch. 4
Bussey, James F., B.Sc. 2	Fetherly, Helen V., B.A. 4
Carlin, Louis F., Law 3	Fetherly, Marjorie, B.A. 3
Caplan, Estelle L., Com. 2	Findlay, Hugh J., B.A. 3
Chisholm, Juliet, Arts P.	Filson, Homer W., Med. 5
Chu, Fred, Med. 1	Fleck, John, Arts P.
Cochrane, Peter W., B.Sc. 1	Fletcher, W. Ellwood, B.A. 1
	Fraser, Gordon W., B.A. 1

NOTICES

MECHANICAL CLUB TRIP

There will be a meeting of the Mechanical Club this afternoon in room 38 of the Engineering Building at 2.00 o'clock sharp. Mr. T. Jopling, a recent graduate, and now of the Canadian Tube and Steel, will outline a few interesting points in connection with the trip to his plant which will start about 2.30 p.m.
All those interested are invited to attend and any who have cars will help out considerably by bringing them.

BIOLOGY SOCIETY

The first meeting of the Biology Society will be held Tuesday evening, November 5 at 8.15 in the main lecture theatre of the Biology Building. Dr. Huskins, head of the newly created department of Genetics, will speak on "Current Trends in Genetics." This meeting is open to all students, and those interested are invited to attend.

M.W.S.A.A. BADMINTON CLUB

Will all members of the Club who wish to enter a doubles and singles tournament, please sign the list in the Common Room of the Arts Building. Will those wishing to play with special partners in the Doubles Tournament please indicate by signing together.

R.V.C. 35

Will any fourth year student who is interested in taking part in a charade to be given next Thursday at the first meeting of La Societe Francaise, please get in touch with the fourth year representative, Elita De Pierro, as soon as possible. About eight girls are needed. It is not necessary to know a great deal of French to take part.

JAZZ ORCHESTRA

Will all those who are interested in joining a jazz orchestra composed of McGill Students please telephone DO. 8727.

MCGILL HISTORICAL CLUB

Members of the Club are requested to pay the annual fee of one dollar as soon as possible either to the President, or the Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Garnham. Second year men may pay the fee to their Representative, John Hodgson, Arts '37. The Executive of the Club will meet Wednesday, October 31, at one o'clock in the Union Grill Room.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

Students are reminded that the swimming fee of $1.50 must be paid before November 1st, to the Secretary, Physical Education, Office, R. V. C.

BADMINTON

The Graduate students have been allotted Thursday nights from 7.30 to 11.00 for badminton on the R.V.C. courts. Fees will be charged for birds as formerly.

SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH

The Social Science Research Council of New York City offer, for next season, Research Training Fellowships and Grants-in-Aid of Research in the Social Sciences. These are open to men and women who are citizens of the United States or Canada, who hold a Bachelor's degree, and are under the age of 25. The closing date for applications is March 15, 1935. Full particulars may be seen in the Office of the Secretary of the Graduate Faculty, in the Macdonald Physics Building.

FELLOWSHIP

A fellowship available for women of the value of £250 a year for three years, is offered for research at Girton College, Cambridge. Applications must be sent to the Secretary before January 1, 1935. Further particulars are in the office of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research.

BADMINTON CLUB

Arrangements have definitely been made for the McGill Badminton Club to play at the Union this year. A meeting will be held in the Union Reading Room at one o'clock today, for the purpose of taking the names of those interested, and arranging for the opening of play.

COMMERCIAL LUNCHEON

The Commercial Undergraduate Society will hold its first luncheon of the year this coming Thursday at one o'clock in the Union Grill. The Society feel fortunate in having obtained

On Friday an R.V.C. Athletic Coupon book. Please leave with Bill Gentleman.

Kimball's College Physics. Also an English Edition Trigonometry Book. Please leave with Bill Gentleman, Arts Building.

On Geology I field trip over Mt. Royal, a hammer. Will finder please leave at Museum.

10 inch K and E Polyphase Duplex slide rule in black case. Finder please leave with Harry Grimdale in the Engineering Building.

A pair of black kid gloves with white stitching. Finder please leave with Bill Gentleman.

A lucky piece. A pink Mickey Mouse with white feet on a blue string. Extremely important that it should soon be recovered. Finder please leave in Bill Gentleman's office.

FOUND

About a week ago, a copy of "Democracy and Education." Apply to "The Weavers," 2092 University Street.

One rug, left in Women's Rest Room Arts Building two or three weeks ago. Coat also found in Arts Building. Several other articles awaiting claimants. Apply to Bill Gentleman.

Will the owners of the property

listed below please call at the office of Strathcona Hall and claim it: One Student Handbook, one comb, one compact, one lipstick, one pair of gloves.

FOR SALE

One copy of Kimball's College Physics in excellent condition. Phone MA. 7939.

Denton Captains Track Seconds

At a meeting of the Intermediate Track Squad, held last night, Fred L. Denton, winner of both sprints in the meet with R.M.C. and Ottawa University, was unanimously elected captain for the coming season.

SAVE $5 BY RENTING
UNDERWOOD TYPEWRITERS
From the maker
UNDERWOOD ELLIOTT FISHER LIMITED
639 Craig W. LA. 4241

DRAWING SUPPLIES

for
ENGINEERING STUDENTS
Mathematical Sets — Slide Rules — Tee Squares — Paper, etc.

ART EMPORIUM, LIMITED

1429 McGill College Avenue

The MCGILL UNION

Where friends meet for a game of billiards, for the friendly chat, for a cup of good coffee and where breakfast, lunch and dinner may be had at extremely low prices.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS

The 1934 Election will be held early in December. Applications must be in before November 10th. Scholar elected this year will enter Oxford in October 1935. A Rhodes Scholarship is worth 400 pounds a year for two years with an option of a third. Scholars may follow any course of studies they choose. Rhodes scholars are chosen without written examination on the basis of their School and College records.

A candidate to be eligible must —
(a) Be a male citizen of Canada and unmarried.
(b) Be between the ages of nineteen and twenty-five.
(c) Have completed at least his Sophomore year in College.

Candidates may apply either for the Province in which they have their ordinary private domicile, home or residence, or for any province in which they may have received at least two years of their college education before applying.

The qualities which will be considered in making the selection are:
(1) Literary and Scholastic ability and attainments.
(2) Qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy, kindness, unselfishness and fellowship.
(3) Exhibition of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates.
(4) Physical vigor as shown by interest in outdoor sports or in other ways.

Further information and application blanks may be obtained from the Provincial Secretary, A. D. P. Heeney, 215 St. James Street West, Montreal.

or from the Registrar's Office.

OLD MCGILL 1935

Will the following students of Arts '35 please have their photos taken TO-DAY at Rice's Studio. This must be done immediately. The cost is $2.75 which includes one extra copy of the photo.

Aber, S.	Parrell	Oswald
Belbin	Foggo	Peck
Black	Freeman	Perelmutter
Bloomfield	Garnham	Piddington
Blumer	Gemmell	Pitcher
Brown	Goldfine	Pollack
Brusilovsky	Hendelman	Poole
Buchanan	Law	Sare
Burns	Hulbig	Selp
Campbell	Johnson	Shepherd
Cardwell	Kerr	Simkover
Carsley	Laing	Simpson
Collard	MacFayden	Stikeman
Cooper	MacGregor	Swalsky
Ccorsch	McLeish	Temple-Hill
Crelenstein	MacQueen	Vinokhin
Dawson	Murray	Wilder
	Nugent	Zimmerman

DATE BUREAU REGISTRATION FORM

NAME
ADDRESS TELEPHONE
HOME TOWN
AGE HEIGHT WEIGHT
FACULTY YEAR COLOUR OF HAIR
Would you be willing to share expenses for the first date?
What type of person would you prefer to meet?
Approximately when would you like to be dated?
What amusements to you prefer?
Any other specifications or remarks?

To be filled in and left in a sealed envelope in the box at the "Daily" Office. Please enclose photograph. All information strictly confidential.